JUST FOR MENTORS

Tips, inspiration, and encouragement as you mentor men and women in prison

JUNE 2025

Dear Mentor,

Life is filled with seasons. Before coming to Crossroads, I was mentored by many people, forming a network of relationships within churches, ministries, volunteer groups, and criminal justice entities. As I transitioned into my new role, I was pulled in new directions, with responsibilities that connected me to a broader network of relationships across the country. Over time, some of my previous relationships faded. I found myself grieving what once was, even as I felt excitement about new opportunities. I came to realize that one season in my life had transitioned to another.

Inevitably, my time at Crossroads will transition as well. Solomon reminds us, "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens . . . " (Ecclesiastes 3:1). My life has been full of changing seasons. Tears flowed when my children left home, but time brought joy and the laughter of grandchildren (Ecclesiastes 3:4). My incarceration broke me down, but time has brought healing and new life (Ecclesiastes 3:7a). Each season has brought new perspectives and opportunities to learn.

"Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever; wisdom and power are his. He changes times and seasons; he sets up kings and deposes them. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning" (Daniel 2:20-21).

When life is hard and painful, it's difficult to see beyond the circumstances we are enduring. We may feel confused by life-altering events, or we may look back and see a timeline filled with bumps and bruises. Yet these difficult seasons may lead to a new season of restoration. We find comfort in knowing that while we may not fully grasp what God has done from beginning to end, we can hold onto the truth that He will make everything beautiful in its time (Ecclesiastes 3:11).

Our students have shared many stories. We've heard about cellmates who are destructive to their well-being and their desperate cries for help. We've seen the anxiety in their words as they anticipate release from incarceration and the uncertainty of what lies ahead. We've also heard stories of drug abuse and violence leading to death—yet sobriety and introspection have brought new life in Christ. To me, this is true excitement! Each story reflects a season they are transitioning from, navigating through, or entering into.

I want to encourage you to reflect on the seasons in your life—whether difficult or joyful—and how they have shaped your perspective. Where have you seen God working in your life? Is there a story of illness and uncertainty for yourself or a loved one (Psalm 23:4)? Have you faced a time where patience was strained, and you learned to wait on God's timing (Psalm 27:14)? Or perhaps life is smooth and uneventful right now, and you are grateful for this time of peace and rest.

"But I trust in you, LORD; I say, 'You are my God.' My times are in your hands; deliver me from the hands of my enemies, from those who pursue me" (Psalm 31:14-15).

Looking back, I can see how God was preparing me for a new season of ministry. I am still contemplating how to convince all of you to move to my neighborhood when this season at Crossroads transitions!

Serving alongside you,

Douglas Cupery

June Mentor Q&A: Curriculum Updates and Prayer Time

Join us as we discuss and answer questions about the new curriculum launching for students next month! We will also take time as a group to pray for the success of this launch.

Please use the QR code below to register and receive a reminder email closer to the gathering. To help us prepare and provide the best answers, email your questions to us in advance at GatheringsQA@cpministries.org.

Date: Tuesday, June 17, at 3:00 p.m. (ET)

We look forward to hearing from you!

Volunteer at the Crossroads Office

If you are in the greater Grand Rapids area and are interested in volunteering at our home office, we would love to connect with you! Each week, volunteers assist with tasks such as opening mail, reviewing lessons, entering enrollment forms, packaging student lessons, and more. If you or someone you know may be interested, please email us at missionsupport@cpministries.org.

Curriculum Updates

We are excited to announce that our new curriculum will launch for students in July! Why the changes? Over the past six years, we've worked hard to refine our curriculum to better meet the needs of our students and the mentors who support them. The key reasons for these updates include:

- Allowing students to start one-on-one mentoring earlier.
- Giving students reflective questions that help mentors better understand their journey and struggles.
- Adding important topics like reentry, biblical thinking and wisdom, serving God in prison, and making the most of the mentor experience.
- Updating outdated courses to better fit the needs of students in jail or prison and to match their reading levels.

Scripture Reading and Prayer Guide: The Wisdom of Proverbs

Each quarter, our students receive a Just for Students newsletter that includes a Scripture reading and prayer guide. We encourage you to join our students by following this prayer guide over the next few months as well. As you spend time in prayer and Scripture each day, we pray that God reveals more of Himself to you. You can find the Just for Students newsletters, including current and prior Scripture reading and prayer guides, online at cpministries.org/resources/mentors/just-for-students.

The book of Proverbs, written primarily by King Solomon, offers wisdom for living a godly life. Many of its sayings may sound familiar. When God told Solomon He would give him anything he wanted, Solomon asked for wisdom. By applying the teachings of Proverbs to our daily lives, we can grow in our relationships and improve in all we do.
